

ACRA-SA/NT are pleased to invite you to a very special EDUCATION SEMINAR ‘Cardiovascular conditions and their treatment: Multidisciplinary perspectives and psychological aspects of care’

0900-0930 Registration and introduction
Tea and coffee arrival

0930-1015 LVAD to support the failing heart
Dr James Gunton-Cardiologist, Flinders Medical Centre

1015-1100 Nursing aspects in the management of the LVAD patient
Lee-Anne Horsfall- Heart Transplant & LVAD Co-Ordinator, Flinders Medical Centre

1100-1130 Morning Tea

1130-1215 The true impact of living with LVAD-a patient's perspective
Mr Bruce Mcandie

1215-1300 Sleep apnoea screening and treatment as part of cardiac rehabilitation
Dr Kadhim Kadhim-Centre for Heart Rhythm Disorders-University of Adelaide

1300-1400 Lunch and AGM

1400-1445 Psychological aspects in patients with cardiovascular conditions
Dr Phillip Tully-University of Adelaide

1445-1530 Cognitive Behaviour Therapy-Principles and Practice
Mr Dominic Gallagher-Director CBT Institute

1530-1600 Evaluation, Certificates

Date: Saturday 25th May 2019

Time: 0900-1600hrs

Location: South Australian Health and Medical Research Institute (SAHMRI)

North Terrace, Adelaide

Parking available: Wilson Parking, Hindley St

RSVP: Annette Ferguson via email:

acrasant.secretary@gmail.com

By COB Friday 10th May 2019

Cost: Free to ACRA members; $100 for non-members

4.5 CPD hours

(ACRA administration fee waived if you become a member on the day)

Event kindly sponsored by Astra Zeneca

