Invitation

On behalf of the Organising Committee for the 31st Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM) of the Australian Cardiovascular Health and Rehabilitation Association (ACRA), it gives us great pleasure in extending to you the opportunity to join us as a valued sponsor for the ACRA 2022 ASM.

This meeting will be held at the Sea World Resort and Conference Centre, Sea World Drive, Main Beach Queensland from Monday 8th to Wednesday 10th August 2022.

For over 30 years ACRA has been the peak national body for representing health professionals involved in cardiovascular health care and secondary prevention. Today we comprise of nearly 500 members (and growing) across the nation.

ACRA's mission is to provide support and advocacy for multidisciplinary health professionals to deliver evidence-based best practice across the continuum of cardiovascular care. As a not-for-profit organisation, we are dedicated to supporting research and continuing professional development. ACRA has authored the national professional core components for cardiac rehabilitation, been a major contributor to Australian cardiovascular guidelines and actively participates in national committees in cardiovascular disease management.

The Scientific Committee is working on an innovative program with the emphasis on "People, Purpose & Opportunity." This theme will reflect on the challenges that have impacted cardiovascular health over recent times as we explore how COVID 19 created barriers for the early treatment of cardiovascular disease and the ongoing management of co-morbidities. We will delve into how we have adapted to these challenges and barriers, to work towards managing and improving heart health, while investigating and embracing the role of innovative technologies in supporting our patients to recover and to thrive.

The 2022 ASM will host several internationally and showcase nationally renowned guest speakers, along with a program which will showcase the innovative research being conducted in Australia. The ASM is the Association's major forum for the exchange of ideas and for discussion around clinical and research issues, including the latest developments in the prevention and management of cardiovascular disease.

This prospectus outlines the exciting sponsorship and exhibition opportunities available to you to promote your company and increase its profile to a diverse group of over 200 health professionals working in cardiovascular care. There will be a wide range of packages available to you to assist in the promotion of your business.

The trade exhibition will be located on the "Veranda" the same area where delegates will congregate for morning, afternoon teas and lunches each day and where our poster display will be located.

Social functions at the meeting include a Welcome Reception on Monday 8th August at the Sunset Deck and the ASM Gala Event at the SeaWorld Resort on the evening of Tuesday 9th August 2022. The meeting will be highly interactive, making extensive use of social media prior, during and after the event.

This is a wonderful opportunity to be involved in this exciting meeting and we look forward to welcoming and working with you as a valued partner of ACRA 2022 in sunny Queensland.

Sincerely

Carmel Bourne: Conference Convenor, President Elect ACRA Executive Management Committee

Bridget Abell: Scientific Chair, President ACRA QLD

Why become a sponsor?

By supporting the ACRA 2022 ASM, not only will you align yourself with one of the leading cardiovascular conferences in 2022, but you will also gain from:

Exposure to a local, national and international audience of health professionals.

Opportunities to raise your company's profile to a valuable target audience, develop closer relations with core clients and deliver a clear message that you have a genuine commitment to the cardiovascular health and rehabilitation domains.

Recognition including acknowledgment and clear demonstration of your organisation's involvement, commitment and support to the sectors.

Valuable insights, information and exposure to the latest developments in the industry.

What makes an ACRA ASM delegate group unique:

- Access to highly experienced cardiovascular health professionals who counsel patients daily on the use of guideline therapies and secondary prevention practices.
- A well-established stable work force that offer consistent messaging over the long-term to patients on evidenced based therapies.
- Provide an essential link in maintaining inpatient therapies in the outpatient setting.
- Provide care and counselling of cardiovascular patients through the continuum of their health journey from initial diagnosis to recovery and rehabilitation
- Are passionate about improving the cardiovascular health of patients and include a team of cardiologists, general practitioners, pharmacists, nurses, nurse practitioners, physiotherapists, exercise physiologists, Indigenous health workers, occupational therapists, dieticians, psychologists and social workers.
- Promote partnerships with cardiac patients to improve outcomes in cardiovascular health and it is through our conferences and meetings that partnerships and networking occurs.

We are seeking your support with these aims at the 2022 ASM.

The available sponsorship options are outlined in this prospectus.

Through your involvement with the ACRA ASM, you will receive benefits including:

- Opportunity to represent your company and products in a learning environment.
- Share in our commitment and loyalty to cardiac staff and patients.
- Share information with delegates, which may enhance client self-efficiency and adherence with medication and treatment.
- Opportunity to promote your product and gain exposure to practitioners who advise patients about their treatment options.
